

LESLLA 2014 – Conference on Low-Educated Second Language and Literacy Acquisition

Mrs. Enas Filimban
School of English Literature, Language and Linguistics
Percy Building
University of Newcastle upon Tyne
Newcastle upon Tyne
United Kingdom

Subject: acceptance of paper and article
Date: Nijmegen, December 11, 2015

Dear Mrs. Filimban,

It was me a pleasure to inform you that the proposal for a presentation titled Making high expectations with examples for English and Selection of sounds and words for English, submitted by Rola Naeb and yourself had been accepted. We invited you to present the paper at the LESLLA conference in Nijmegen, August 28-30. Because it turned out at a very late moment that you could not come due to problems with your visa for the Netherlands, the paper was presented by your co-author dr. Rola Naeb.

In addition to above I would like to testify that Mrs. Enas Filimbas was one of the authors of the written version of the paper that was included in the volume: Adult Literacy, Second Language and Cognition (2015), edited by Ineke van de Craats, Jeanne Kurvers and Roeland van Hout. Published by Centre for Language Studies, Nijmegen, Netherlands. The title of the article was: The Digital Literacy Instructor: Developing Automatic Speech Recognition and selecting learning materials for opaque and transparent orthographies (pages 251-278).

The following files have been attached:

1. A copy from the programme booklet
2. A copy of the table of contents from Adult Literacy, Second Language and Cognition
3. A copy of the chapter to which Mrs. Filimban contributed.

I hope I have sufficiently informed you.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Ineke van de Craats, chair of the LESLLA conference
Radboud University Nijmegen
P.O. Box 9103
6500 HD Nijmegen
The Netherlands

Radboud University Nijmegen

