The Award Committee for the ISTH 2015 Young Investigator Grants has reviewed your application, and we are pleased to inform you that Ahmad Mufti, presenting author of abstract: ISTH15ABS-3888 (Final Identifier OR406) - SINGLE NUCLEOTIDE VARIANTS C.2365A>G AND C.2385T>C ARE ASSOCIATED WITH INCREASED VWF PLASMA LEVELS THROUGH AN EFFECT ON MRNA HALF-LIFE has been awarded a grant in the amount of CAD 700. This grant is intended to help cover some of the costs of the abstract presenter's travel, hotel, and registration, associated with attending the 2015 Congress.

The grant will be available to collect on site at the Congress. Please be informed that the recipient of the grant will have to present this letter and a valid passport in order to collect the grant.

Grants can be collected starting Monday, 22 June, 10.00AM at the Travel Grant desk at the Registration Area on Level 600 of the Congress Center. No other representative is authorized to collect your grant.

Important Information: the award is not transferable in any case and will only be given to the person mentioned above (Ahmad Mufti)

As a Young Investigator recipient, Ahmad Mufti is eligible to access the Career Mentorship Lunch Sessions in the scientific program (seats are limited and registration is on a first come first served basis). Please use the following code on the registration form when asked:

Career Mentorship lunch session code: UYtXg9

Should your plans to attend ISTH 2015 change for any reason, we ask that you notify us immediately. Any such changes, as well as any questions regarding the award may be directed to Céline Simula at celine.simula@mci-group.com

Congratulations on your award, and we very much look forward to seeing you in Toronto in June.

Sincerely,

Sam Schulman
Congress President

Jeff Weitz
Chairman Scientific Program Committee
