Poster Competition

London Hopper Colloquium 23rd May 2013
BCS, The Chartered Institute for IT, London

Dear

Congratulations on your winning poster in the IBM Poster Competition for Masters students, PhD students and postdoctoral researchers at the 9th London Hopper Colloquium for Computing Research.

It is our pleasure to celebrate your achievement with this cash award of £100.

We hope that you have enjoyed the London Hopper Colloquium, hearing from the various speakers about their current research projects, and exchanging ideas with other women conducting research in computing.

We wish you every success with your future research projects and your career.
