The European Society of Human Genetics is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS), www.uems.net.

The European Human Genetics Conference is designated for a maximum of 22 European CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

EACCME credits are recognized by the American Medical Association towards the Physician's Recognition Award (PRA). Information on the process to convert EACCME credit to AMA credit can be found at www.ama-assn.org/qa/internationalcme.
